

The AWSCPA of Georgia Celebrates Female Role Models

Atlanta – December 15, 2014 – The AWSCPA of Georgia invites you to: Get Inspired! Invest in your success and celebrate with us!

Engage or Exit? The 2013 Accounting Move Project Report, sponsored by the AWSCPA, found that 69% of women interviewed identified work/life balance issues as the top barrier to advancement, and 48% said that women still lack female role models.

The AWSCPA of Georgia Legacies, Leaders & Luminaries Celebration Dinner to be held on January 8, 2015 at the National Center for Civil & Human Rights will honor Johnnie L. Clark, CPA, MBA, Ph.D. and other rising stars in the profession. We at the AWSCPA of Georgia know there are many female role models; and, this event is specifically designed to showcase them. Many of these role models both exemplify and champion work/life balance.

To learn more about the AWSCPA of Georgia and this gala event, please visit the website at <http://www.awscpa-ga.org/honors>

---

ABOUT AWSCPA: The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants (AWSCPA) is a national organization dedicated to serving all women CPAs and those actively pursuing the designation. The AWSCPA provides a supportive environment and valuable resources for members to achieve their personal and professional goals through various opportunities including leadership, networking and education. www.awscpa-ga.org

###